

Program learning outcomes

Students will embody and enact a critical and ethical understanding of the child and youth care identity and profession. This work takes place within a landscape of multidisciplinary human services guided by applicable legal and policy frameworks.