Use of audio recordings is exclusive to the student for the purpose of supplementing their personal lecture notes and reviewing course session content.

Audio recordings will not be copied, shared, nor otherwise reproduced or distributed.

The instructor will identify instances wherein audio recording constitutes a modification of the objectives or essential requirements. Said instances may be documented below.

In cases where audio recording constitutes a modification of the objectives or essential requirements, please contact the Accessibility Specialist for assistance in identifying suitable alternative accommodations.

Student will delete all their audio recordings by the end of the term.

e.g. considerations for group work, class discussions, guest speakers, practicum settings, etc.
