

EFFECTIVE: SEPTEMBER 2004
CURRICULUM GUIDELINES

A. Division: Educational Services                      Effective Date: September 2004

B. Department / Student Development                      Revision  New Course
Program Area: Career & Employment Preparation

If Revision, Section(s) C, G, I
 Revised:
 Date of Previous Revision: March 1992
 Date of Current Revision: April 2004

C: CAEP 0201    D: Career Exploration and Planning    E: 3

---

Subject & Course No.	Descriptive Title	Semester Credits
----------------------	-------------------	------------------

F: Calendar Description:

This course is designed to provide adults with a disability with an ongoing supportive environment in which to explore career alternatives. It will include self assessment, job training information and the development of a career plan wi

M: Course Objectives / Learning Outcomes:

1. To increase self-awareness of personal skills, aptitudes, abilities, interests and values.
2. To explore occupational and career alternatives.
3. To identify intrinsic and extrinsic employment and educational barriers and develop coping strategies.
- 4.

R: Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition: specify whether course is open for PLAR

N/A

---

Course Designer(s)
Mabel A. Izat

---

Education Council / Curriculum Committee Representative

---

Dean / Director

---

Registrar