

M: Course Objectives / Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Describe the dynamic attributes of community.
  - C Articulates the connections between community and quality of life
  - C Compares and contrasts asset-based and service-based models of community development
  - C Compares and contrasts the benefits and drawbacks of community experience for people who live within a service system and those who do not
2. Articulate the value and importance of friendships and family in the lives of people who live with a disability.
  - C Identifies circles of support in personal life

R: Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition.
This course is available for PLAR.

---

Course Designer(s) Chris Horrocks, Janice Barr

---

Education Council / Curriculum Committee Representative

---

Dean: Jan Lindsay

---

Registrar: