

DOUGLAS COLLEGE

COURSES FOR WHICH THIS IS A PREREQUISITE:

RELATED COURSES:

TEXTBOOKS, REFERENCES, MATERIALS, LIST READING RESOURCES, ETC.

1. Fundamentals of Interpersonal Communication (tentative).
2. Griffin and Patton.
3. Other assigned readings and handouts.

COURSE OBJECTIVES, CONTENT, METHOD, EVALUATION:

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

Students will be able to identify human communication processes and skill in being a more effective human communicator.

COURSE CONTENT (Unit-based):

1. Models of Human Communication
Limitations of Models
Survey of Communication Models
2. Intrapersonal Communication
Information Processing
Perception
Symbols, Language and Meaning
3. Interpersonal Communication
Verbal Communication
Nonverbal Communication
Values, Beliefs and Attitudes
Self Concept
Role Theory
4. Small Group Communication
Group Structure
Leadership
Power and Control

DECISION MAKING

COURSE COMMENT (continued)

Socio/Cultural Communication

Social Influence

6. Communication Dynamics

Communication Barriers

Facilitating Interpersonal Interaction

Conflict Resolution

Interpersonal Feedback

METHODOLOGY:

The course will include short theory inputs, experiential learning which