

A: Division: Educational and Student Services

Department: Student Services and Development

Revision of Course

Program:

Information

GE: EAS#244

Upper Intermediate Listening for Students

(Combined Section)

Semester: Credit

Subject & Course No.

Descriptive Title

Option: This course with its co-requisite

Summary of Revisions:

Calendar Description

(Enter date & section)

Eg. Section C,E,F

EAS 244 is the second in a series of combined listening and speaking courses. This course is for students who wish to upgrade their listening skills in to continue their education or improve their process of this course

appropriately to communication

Activities will also provide many opportunities. Ex understand and respond appro

in a variety of routine settings include an opportunity for lea

an opportunity for language and development, including grammar, sentence structure and vocabulary, as well as for pronunciation improvement

3. cultural appropriateness (responding in accordance with cultural expectations).

and basic notetaking techniques.

Q. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The instructor will facilitate... describe the events, external participation... individual assistance and two-way ordered learning...

R. COURSE EVALUATION

...atory course and students will be marked on... assessments.

...the course is a college pro... 70% on a series of in-class and out-of-class