

M: Course Objectives / Learning Outcomes

Within relevant educational, employment and social context, students who master this course will be able to:

1. maintain/improve skills taught in EASL 0165 or EASL 0164.
2. select appropriate dictionaries, and use them effectively
3. use the more common context clues, together with knowledge of affixes and roots where applicable, to determine the meaning of an unfamiliar word or phrase.
4. make predictions prior to reading, survey the reading to verify the predictions, make on-going predictions while reading, and scan ahead to verify such predictions.
- 5.