

Prepared by Student (Use Bibliographic Form)

H.F. Morrow, R. (Jr.) Canada & The World. An Atlas Resource.
Scarborough, Ont.: Prentice-Hall Canada Inc., 1984).

Matthews, G

J. Lewis. Concepts & Themes In The Regional Geography of Canada

Robinson, J

Subject and Course Number

- 4. The Economy
  - resource development
  - manufacturing
  - tertiary industries

III. Regions of Canada

- 1. Nationalism and regionalism
- 2. Metropolitan-hinterland analysis
- 3. The Heartland Regions
  - Ontario
    - main street Canada
    - industrialism
  - Quebec
    - the French fact
    - Quebec - Canada relations
- 4. The Hinterland Regions
  - Atlantic Canada
    - economic development

The Prairies

- agricultural patterns and problems
- economic diversification

British Columbia

- problems of a resource based economy

The North

- resource exploitation and its impact on environment and native populations

Review and Conclusions

Regionalism and nationalism

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:

Presentation of information will be by means of lectures, films, slides. Analysis

EVALUATION:

COURSE EVALUATION:

Term test	20%
Exam	25%
labs/exercises	30%
4. Term project	25%

- 1. Mid-term
- 2. Final exam
- 3. Two major assignments