M: Course Objectives / Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- 1. Develop ASL vocabulary for specialized and technical settings
- 2. Use ASL, in conjunction with other visual techniques in a range of educational and community settings
- 3. Reflect a range of emotions in ASL discourse
- 4. Convey simple and complex descriptions of objects and actions in grammatically correct ASL.
- N: Course Content: The following global ideas guide the design and delivery of this course:
 - ASL tends to be highly descriptive and detailed as well as narrative in nature. ASL uses techniques such as three-dimensional space, explaining by example, contrasting, describing-then-doing, reiterating, couching (or nesting) and faceting.
 - Fluent users of ASL structure their discourse according to real-time sequencing and have a diverse semantic range in which classifiers, spatial locatives, directional verbs and affect markers are used to provide specific semantic information.
 - Fluent ASL signers use correct grammatical structure and are able to incorporate sign sequencing with visual grammatical markers to communicate in a variety of registers. They can adapt their language to linguistic rules of various contexts, including special ways of communication with Deaf children and youth.
 - Native users of language provide a rich resource for learning the nuances and complexities of conversational forms of ASL and cultural norms of group interaction.
 - Language and culture cannot be separated. Deaf people rely on ASL narrative to portray themselves and reaffirm their identities as members of a distinct cultural group. Therefore, literature provides an excellent medium for studying culture and is a vital component of any foreign language study.
